Acknowledgement

I wish to express my deep gratitude to Yamesh Man Singh, Associate Professor of Shanker Dev Campus, of Faculty of Management, for his cordial co-operation and supervision without which this study would not have come into possible. His intellectual guidance was of immense inspiration for me.

This thesis entitled “A Study on Profit Planning & Control of Nepal Bangladesh Bank” has been written in partial fulfillment of the requirement of the Degree of Business Studies (MBS).

I am extremely grateful to my respected professors, lecturers, as well as the faculty members of the campus family of Shanker Dev campus whose suggestions made me able to finalize this thesis. The words of gratitude are not sufficient for this kind of co-operation and valuable suggestions.

I further acknowledge here my debt of gratitude to the well wishers and above all my family members especially my sister Vibha Rimal whose co-operation and encouragement strengthened me to complete this attempt. I am grateful to all my friends and my colleagues who helped me in this endeavour and offered valuable advice during the course of preparation of this thesis.

I hope this small effort of mine will be of great value to those who will involve particularly in the study of Profit Planning in Nepal and all other further researches of this area.

Needless to say, to error is human and I am no exception, so I apologize for any errors committed in his work.

Finally, my heartily thanks go to Mr. Dipendra Subedi who help in typing and designing this dissertation.
