ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is my responsibility and my honor to properly thank dozens of people who have made my study successful since last several years. While I will undoubtedly omit a few, this allows me a chance to acknowledge collectively the people who have been my life of the last few years. My respected sister husband Mr. Jaleshowar Pandey (Chairman of Garima Bikas Bank Limited) directed this work and guided to explore the ideas and of course provided a relevant data's and NRB 's publication to present in an appropriate manner. Without an incredible support, this work would have been incomplete.

Most people are lucky to find one advisor, but I have been incredibly fortunate in having Prof. Snehalata Kafle, thesis supervisor, Shanker Dev Campus, extraordinary kindness, constant support, generosity, intellectual and emotional guidance ensured that what could have been a difficult time turned out to be a happy and productive one. Staffs of Nepal Rastra Bank, Head office were also critical in making this thesis report well. They warmly and openly welcomed my many instructions into their time. Many other scholars of Nepal Rastra Bank have been kind and generous with their time and energies. My passed out friends of Tribhuvan University Mr. Deepesh Pokhrel, Bednidhi Pokhrel have provided a rich and productive environment in which to think about how to make this research more meaningful. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the library members of Nepal Commerce Campus and Central library T.U. In no particular order: Kamal Narayan Kafle, Hari Kafle, Durga Devi Guragain shared many great experiences with me.

Miss Sharmila Parajuli, computer typing, managing layouts, formatting, printing receives sincere thanks for their efforts.
