ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, my heartiest gratitude goes to my supervisor, Lecturer Ms. Shyamu Thapa Magar. Her great guidance, support and constant motivation made it easy for me to carry out this research work. She has been very supportive to me and always encouraged and helped me in need. I got various kinds of help and also great deal of knowledge as to how a scientific research is carried out. Without her support, the thesis would not have come out in this form.

I would like to thank CBS office, participants of research, Central Library and Kirat Rai Yayokha, Kathmandu for providing the necessary secondary as well as primary data.

My sincere thanks go to all the faculty members for their constructive support and encouragement to me during my whole research work. The support of Pro. Dr. Om Prasad Gurung (Head Department of Sociology/Anthropology) is highly acknowledged. I am indebted to Mr. Raj Kumar Rai (Teacher of Shree Balmiki Primary School, Bishnupaduka-7) forever for his moral support.

I consider myself very lucky to very helpful friends, who always have helped me in all the ways for completing the work. I couldn't mention the name of all my friends, but would be unfair if I forget to acknowledge Devi Kumar Tamang, Lal Bahadur Ale and Manju Chemjong.

I am especially thankful to my senior Mr. Surendra Basnet and my friend Lalit Subba and my sister Mina Subba for their kind cooperation and great support during my work. I would like to thank all respondents of Bishnupaduka VDC ward no. 2 and 7 for their kind support in different ways.

Finally, I would like to thank my parents and family members for continuous supporting me in all the ways. I must not forget to thank my younger brother Sujan Rai for his support in the initial phase of my work and I would like to thank all my friends who support me directly and indirectly.
