ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to the Central Department of Geography for providing me an opportunity to conduct research on Livelihoods of Street Fruit Vendors in Kathmandu City. This study is undertaken as partial fulfillment for the Master's Degree of Arts in Geography.

I wish to express my grateful acknowledgement to my supervisor Prof. Bhim Prasad Subedi, Head of Central Department of Geography, T.U. for his valuable guidance, supervision and inspiration in all stage of my work. I must express my deepest respect for his perennial support and encouragement for the preparation of this dissertation. And my grateful thank goes to Lecture of CDG Mr. Hridaya Lal Koirala for his long lasting suggestions, encouragement and criticisms. Similarly, I would like to express deep respect to all the lectures and staff of the Central Department of Geography T.U. for their important suggestions and kind help during preparation of this dissertation.

I am highly indebted to the Swiss National Center of Competence in Research North - South (NCCR North - South) for providing me financial support for the promotion of this study.

I am grateful to those all respondents of street fruit vendors who have contributed their invaluable information about their personal and public matters.

Similarly, I share special thanks to my colleagues Mr. Bal Kumar Rayamajhi, Ashok, Madhav Prasad, Tika, Sunil acharya, Krishna, Raju, Karuna and all my classmates for their kind cooperation and great suggestions.

Finally, I don't have appropriate words to express my gratitude to my parents for their continuous support even in their old age.
