ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis entitled “Relationship among Savings, Investment and Capital Formation in Nepal, A Macro Analysis” for partial fulfillment of the Degree of Master of Business Studies has been prepared with full commitment from my side and I have tried my best to prepare this study with the help of some respectful teachers and friends.

First of all I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my esteemed supervisor Prof. Rajendra Gopal Shrestha for his continuous support and guidance from the initiation to the completion of my thesis work. Without his generous help and encouragement along with constructive criticism, this work would not have been complete.

I am indebted to Prof. Dr. Bihari Binod Pokharel, Head of Research Department, Nepal Commerce Campus, Min Bhawan and thank him for accepting my proposal and helping me conducting this study. I would also like to thank staffs from the Statistical Department of Nepal Rastra Bank who helped me with various data and statistics required for my thesis. A similar heartfelt thanks to Mr. Prakash Sapkota for his valuable suggestions.

I am beholden to the continuous inspiration and support of my husband Dr. Sandesh Poudel, other family members and friends who have stood by my side then and now and help me complete my work. At last I would like to thank those known and unknown sources of help, support and encouragement.
