

Tribhuvan University
Discourse and Power in George Orwell's Novel Nineteen Eighty-four

A thesis submitted to the Department of English, Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Ratna Rajya Laxmi Campus, in partial fulfillment of the Requirement for the Degree of Master of Arts in English.

By
Bhoj Kumar Dhamala
Roll. No. 47/063/064

Department of English
Ratna Rajya Laxmi campus
Exhibition Road, Kathmandu
March, 2009

Tribhuvan University

Letter of Approval

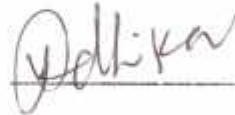

This thesis "Power and Discourse in Orwell's novel Nineteen Eighty-Four" submitted to the Department of English, Ratna Rajya Lakshmi Campus, Tribhuvan University by Bhoj Kumar Dhamala, has been approved by the undersigned members of the research committee

Memberes:

Supervisor

(Kamal Prasad Thoklihang)

External Examiner

Dr. Ananda Sharma

Head,

Department of English,

Ratna Rajya Laxmi Campus,

Tribhuvan university,

Kathmandu.

Date..

23/9/2009

Acknowledgement

My sincere gratitude goes to Dr. Ananda Sharma, the Head, Department of English and Lecturer of Ratna Rajya Laxmi Campus, for allowing me to work out my research on the topic “Discourse and Power in George Orwell’s novel Nineteen Eighty-Four.”

I am highly indebted to my thesis supervisor Mr. Kamal Prasad Thoklihang, who provided me invaluable suggestions and guidance, boosting me up and editing my innumerable errors, without whose scholarly guidance this thesis would not have come in this present form. For this regard, Mr. Bhupa Prasad Dhamala, Lecturer of Patan Multiple Campus, Also deserves my sincere salutation.

I never forget to extend my thanks to my friend Narayan Kshetri, who never bothered to assist me finding the needed materials for my research work. I would be unthankful if I forget to mention the names Bhoj Raj Dahal, Apsara Niroula, Bimal Pudasaini, Puspa Thapaliya, Khimananda Gywali, and Chandra Prasad Koirala for their kind co-operation in the needed time. I especially appreciate Pastor Raju Sundas for his encouragement and support. Mr. Dinesh and Mrs Kamala Sigdel, who provided me hours of internet service for my research work, are highly remembered for their help.

After all, my father Daya Ram Dhamala and mother Ganga Dhamala Deserve the highest gratitude who never left stone unturned and always encouraged and supported me from the depth of their heart to complete my higher study. My deep respect and love goes to my grand parents Anirudra Dhamala and Kausilya Dhamala for their platonic love and blessings. I do not find sufficient words to salute Mr. Ram Kumar Dhakal for his back support and encouragement.

March, 2009

Bhoj Kumar Dhamala

Contents	Page no
Acknowledgements
Contents
Chapter One	1-10
Introduction
George Orwell and Survey of His works	1
Orwell's Works	2
Orwell's Time and Socio-Historical Context	9
Chapter Two	14-26
Discourse as a Means of power	14
Discourse and power	21
Chapter Three	27-49
Textual Analysis of Nineteen Eighty-Four	27
Literary influences on Orwell and in His works	33
Discourse and power in Nineteen Eighty-Four	37
Chapter Four	50-52
Conclusion	50
Works Cited	