ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is prepared and submitted to the Faculty of Management, Tribhuvan University as partial fulfillment of the requirements of the Degree of Master of Business Studies (M.B.S.). During the course, I worked with sincerity, honesty and diligently, as far as possible. But beside my continual efforts, I also got unforgettable support from different people and parties. I am extremely grateful and overwhelmed by the support while completing my work.

Firstly, I would like to express my cordial gratitude to all my teachers, who taught me up to now. For this dissertation, I would like to pay my sincere thanks to my thesis supervisor Dr. Prakash Neupane and Mr. Madan Kumar Luitel, Nepal commerce campus. Their incessant suggestion and guidance from the beginning to the end is really an appreciable effort. The same credit also goes to Mr. Dr. Sushil Bhakta Mathema, Head of research department, Nepal commerce campus. His valuable support for the preparation of proposal to thesis is really praise worthy thing. I am extremely indebted by their efforts despite of their busy schedule.

I would also like to express my gratitude to all other members of Nepal commerce campus, especially, Staffs from MBS department, libraries as well as Purna thapa of Insurance Board.

Lastly ,but not least I would like to express my deep gratitude to my parents Mr. Jagannath Tiwari and Mrs. Shusila Tiwari, my elder sister Shanti Lamichhane. I again thanks to my brother, Bednath Tiwari who help me in computerizing this thesis. And also my sincere gratitude goes to all those who helped me in some way or other in presenting this thesis as a final product.
