ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis has been prepared to fulfill the partial requirements for the Master's Degree of Business Studies (MBS), Tribhuvan University, Nepal. In the process of preparation of this thesis, I got a lot of inspiration, co-operation and suggestion from various persons.

Firstly, I owe a debt of gratitude to and my respected thesis supervisor Dr. Gopi Nath Regmi, University Campus, Central Department of Management, Kirtipur. I am extremely indebted by their efforts despite of their busy schedule.

I am very much grateful to the officers of various Bank officers, Revenue officers, Revenue exports and Revenue payers in Kathmandu, for their kind co-operation for my research works. It was a great opportunity for me to learn things from them where I could secure valuable experience.

I am also indebted to my respected teachers of University Campus, Central Department of Management, Kirtipur, who have assisted from their respected sectors. I am also thankful to the library members of Central Department of Management, Kirtipur and Central Library of T.U.

I would like to express more thanks towards all the members of my family who provided regular inspiration and continuous contribution for my success.

Thanks.

Guru Prasad Neupane
