ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The topic of the child labour in small restaurant/hotel (teashop) has been conducted for partial fulfillment of the requirement for the Master's Degree of Arts in Sociology. This Study has been completed in the Ratnanagar Municipality area, Tandi, Chitwan District, 2015, Nepal. Indeed, the study is very useful in enhancing the academic along with professional capacity of any students/scholars.

It is my great pleasure to submit this thesis under the guidance of Dr. Manahari Dhakal, Lecturer of Sociology and Anthropology, Tribhuvan University, Kirtipur. I hardly appreciate his invaluable supervision and useful guidance and no words can fully express my feeling of gratitude to him.

My gratitude also goes to all the respondents, especially, I would like to thank all respondents who co-operated kindly and answered all my questions without any hesitation in data-collection. I must appreciate the kind help of all my colleagues during the preparation of this thesis.

My brothers Sumit Sanjel and sisters Sanjita Sanjel, Bimala Sanjel and brother-in-law Kumar Dotel are kindly supporters.

Moreover, the great contribution goes to my mother Mrs. Saraswati Sanjel and father Indra Prasad Sanjel who give support and inspire me in every step of my life. It was not possible to gain this achievement without their support. As well as I can't forget the courageous support of my life partner Nabaraj Dotel who are the great sources of my happiness and inspiration.

Last but not the least; I would like to give warm thanks to New Kholesimal Computer, Cyber and Communication, Kholesimal Bazaar, Specially Mr. Raj Kumar Shrestha for his editing and technical help.
