ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This dissertation came to a successful completion with the cooperation from various person and institution that have been supportive throughout my work. I am greatly indebted to all of them.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to my dissertation supervisor Mr. Prem Chalaune whose encouragement helped me to write this dissertation. I am grateful to him for his scholarly guidance on various issues that emerged during my inquiry for the field work and also in the writing phase of this study. I want to express my gratitude to Prof Tika Ram Gautam, Head of Department of Sociology, University Campus Kirtipur and Keshav Raj Silwal, external examiner for the valuable suggestions and comments. I am deeply indebted to Madhyapur Thimi authorities for providing necessary information about people and pot making.

Last, but not the least, my sincere thanks go to all the respondents and their family member of Madhyapur Thimi Ward No. 10 for providing me valuable information related to this study. Without their cooperation and assistance, this research would not have been possible.
