ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am pleased to present this thesis entitled “Problems and Prospects of Securities Market in Nepal” in partial fulfillment of requirement for the degree of Master’s Degree in Business Studies (M.B.S.). I am thankful to Tribhuvan University for providing me such an opportunity to explore my subject from a practical perspective. While preparing this thesis, I encountered different realities and facts of the business world in real terms. This work is based on research models involving the use of quantitative as well as qualitative aspects of Problems and Prospects of Capital Market in Nepal.

My foremost expression of gratitude goes to my thesis supervisors Mr. Mahendra Aryal and Mr. Madan Kandel who expended his valuable time in implanting the basic ideologies required to prepare this research. The tireless co-operation of the entire teaching faculty of Nepal Commerce Campus will never be forgotten.

I must not forget to thank all my other acquaintances including officials of SEBON and other personalities from capital market of Nepalese for their valuable advice and support in collecting and presenting the necessary data and journals and applying their effort in making access to research data and literature. I also would like to extend my thanks to all my friends and colleagues, especially my parents and family for helping me out and their continuous support during my study period.

I am indebted to those who have directly and indirectly assisted me to make thesis study worthwhile.

Thanking You.
