

Tribhuvan University

Exoticizing the Non-West in Kerouac's On the Road

A Thesis Submitted to the Department of English, Ratna Rajya Laxmi Campus, under the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Kathmandu, Nepal, in Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the Degree of Master of Arts in English

By

Manoj Giri

May 2008

Tribhuvan University

This thesis titled, "Exoticizing the Non -West in Kerouac's *On the Road" submitted to the Department of English, Ratna Rajya Laxmi Campus, under the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu, in partial fulfillment of the requirements of the degree of Master of Arts in English, by Manoj Giri, has been approved by the undersigned members of the Research Committee.

(Kamal Thoklihang)

Advisor

Members of the Research Committee

External

(Dr. Aanand Prasad Sharma)

Head,

Department of English

Ratna Rajya Laxmi Campus

Kathmandu, Nepal

Date : 13/7/2008

Acknowledgements

I am profoundly indebted to my teacher and advisor Mr Kamal Thoklihang who helped and supported me in every step of this research with his invaluable suggestions and advice. I would like to thank him as well for going through the research paper and making necessary corrections and amendments. Without his kind support, this research would not have completed.

Similarly, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to respected guru Hrisheekesh Upadhyay who went through my thesis proposal and encouraged me to move forward in the present area of research.

I am also thankful to my friends Krishna Acharya, Komal Prasad Phuyal, and Narayan Lamsal for their friendly support and encouragement to complete this research.

Manoj Giri

June 2008

Table of Content

Letter of Approval	i
Acknowledgements	ii
Chapter 1. Introduction	1-14
1.1. Exoticism: Theory and practice	2
1.2. Non-West as a Category	12
1.3. Hypothesis	13
1.4. Findings	13
Chapter 2. Orient, Orientalism, and Fiction	15 -30
2.1. Exotic Land as Mental Construction	16
2.2. Mystery as the Result of Failure of Understanding	20
2.3. Rationality of the West under Question	24
2.4. Orientalism in Fiction Writing	27
Chapter 3. Exoticizing the Non-West in Kerouac's On the Road	31 -56
3.1. General Background	33
3.1.1. Kerouac and his Time	33
3.1.2. Kerouac as Storyteller	35
3.1.3. America of the 1950s	38
3.2. Textual Analysis of On the Road	42
3.2.1. Kerouac's Misunderstanding of the West	42
3.2.2. Arab Image as the Western Bias	45
3.2.3. Banaras and Lhasa as the Imaginary Lands	49

3.2.4. Aztec Lake: Fascination of the Exotic Non-Western Past 51

3.2.5. The Cowboy as the Tantalizing Figure 54

Chapter 4. Exotic Non-West: Mental Construction of the West 57 -59

Works Cited