ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The present study "A Study on Problems and Prospects of Nepalese Foreign Trade" has been prepared for the partial fulfillment of the requirement for master degree in business studies.

The successful completion of this dissertation is the result of invaluable guidance of my supervisor Dr. Bihari Binod Pokharel, Associate Professor of Nepal Commerce Campus, Minbhawan. Without his proper guidance and excellent supervision, this research report would not have been presented in this form. So, first of all, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Pokharel for his valuable supervision and regular inspiration during this study.

I would like to express hearty thank towards all the members of my family who provided regular inspiration and continuous contribution for my success. More specially, my thankfulness goes to my lovely brother Sanjay Khatiwada for his steady encouragement and appreciates understanding which enabled me to complete this work in this form. I also express my cordial thanks to my friend Mr. Gopal Shrestha who had formatting this report.

Last but not least, I would like to express my sincere thanks to all of them who had supported me to complete this dissertation work.
