ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I would like to express my deep gratitude to my research Supervisor Mrs. Rita Maskey of Shanker Dev Campus, for her guidance, suggestions and comments during the study.

Furthermore, I would like to thank all the staffs of NEPSE and SEBON for their cooperation and help in providing the valuable data useful in preparing this report.

I am grateful to Tribhuvan University Library, Shanker Dev Campus Library, Nepal Commerce Campus Library, and Social Science Baha Library for their institutional support, who provide me necessary books, articles, newspapers, websites, thesis, magazines etc. without which this research would not have been completed.

Due thanks and appreciations go to my parents and all the family members who despite many inconveniences provide me with a suitable environment throughout the study period.

At the same time I feel very indebted to all those authors whose works were cited during the study. Similarly, I don't miss to thank all the library staffs of Shankar dev campus for providing necessary information for the study

Since this thesis is the first attempt to bring into the light within a short period of time with limited resources and constraints, I admit that there is sufficient room to improve it. So, any valuable comments and suggestions are welcomed which will be of great help for further improvements.
