ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is for Partial fulfillment of Master's Degree in Business Studies (MBS) undertaken at Tribhuvan University of Nepal. For this, I gained lot of guidelines and suggestions from my teachers, friends and other company's officials and my relatives. Firstly, I want to express my profound gratitude to Mr. Ram Prakash Upadhyay, Lecturer of Post Graduate Campus, Biratnagar for his guidance, encouragement, and possible help in the smooth conduct of this study.

I am also very much grateful to honorable Prof. Dr. Madav Bahadur Shrestha, the Head of the Department of Thesis Committee of P. G. Campus, Biratnagar and my other respected teachers for providing invaluable suggestions, information and comments.

I am also thankful to Nepal Stock Exchange and Security Board of Nepal for their cooperation for collecting the data, other necessary information and resources , apart from them I couldn't successfully complete my mission.

I also owe deep gratitude to my friend Mr. Prajwal Man Shrestha whose continuous support encouraged me greatly to devote my time. Sincere thanks goes to my wife Mrs. Gyanu Kumari Subedi for her ceaseless assistance and encouragement in pursuing my academic activities successfully.

I am also thankful to Triveni Photocopy Center, Himalay Road, Biratnagar for typing and publishing of this thesis.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to Gopal Pd. Ghimire & Other staffs of Post graduate Collage Biratnagar for their cordial cooperation.

I found my self-fortune enough to receive a good deal of help from various institutions and person of various sectors in completing this study. I am solely responsible for all errors.
