ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I would like to express my sincere gratitude Dr. Keshav Kumar Shrestha, Associate Professor of the Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, for his regular guidance, valuable time, encouragement, comments and suggestion during the preparation of this report for making it valuable despite of his busy schedule and normal routine responsibilities at the Tribhuvan University.

I am also indebted to Dr. Om Gurung, Associate Professor and Head of the Department of Sociology/Anthropology for helpful co-operation, suggestion, direction and guidance. I would like to extend my sincere thanks to all Restaurants and Tea shops employers and child laborers who responded unhesitant in course of information collection. In course of writing this thesis, I received help and suggestion from various persons, institutions and friends. I would like to thank the members of Lalitpur Sub-Metropolitan City, Child Worker In Nepal (CWIN), International Labor Organization (ILO), ILO/International Program on the Elimination of Child Labor for providing me necessary data, information as per my requirements and co-operation.

I am also indebted to my parents for their continued encouragement and inspiration of my whole life of the study period. I would like to express my sincere thanks to my friends and colleagues for their excellent cooperation and discussion during the preparation of this thesis. At last, I would also like to thank all those persons and organizations who helped me directly or indirectly to prepare this thesis in this form. All have equally contributed their valuable and remarkable suggestion and kindly help to the whole life cycle of this thesis. This thesis would not be in present form without their proper help.
