ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This study is conducted to find out the present socio economic condition of Bote community of Makawanpur, Manahari VDC 6. Through this scheme, I got the chance to do research about the Bote people, an indigenous community of Nepal. I am grateful to the Bhaktapur Multiple Campus for giving me permission to study about Bote. Besides this, I am highly grateful to my research supervisor Madhav Gyawali for his valuable suggestion, guidelines, kind co-operation and encouragement throughout the various stages during this study despite of his busy time schedule. I would like to thank all Bote people of Makawanpur, Manahari VDC, especially for those who participated in my questionnaire and interview as a respondent; without whose help, this study could not have been brought in to present shape. Besides, I remember Mr. Bir Bahadur Bote (Chair-person- Bote ethnic community, chaudaghare), Mr. Muktinath Adhikari (chair-person-bufferzone community, Ramauli) and Mr. Kiran Rai (teacher, Shree Brahmakali Lower Secondary School, Manahari) for their kind co-operation as well as information about Botes. So far, I am also indebted to the staff of Tribhuvan University Central Library, Central Department of sociology and T.U.
