INTER-CASTE RELATIONSHIP IN A MULTI-ETHNIC VILLAGE: AN ETHNOGRAPHIC STUDY OF TUDKIYA, LALPUR VDC, SIRAHA DISTRICT

The Thesis Submitted to the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Partial Fulfillment of the requirement for the Degree of Master in Anthropology

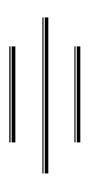

Submitted By Janak Bahadur Shahi

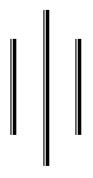

Tribhuvan University Kirtipur, Kathmandu March, 2010

INTER-CASTE RELATIONSHIP IN A MULTI-ETHNIC VILLAGE: AN ETHNOGRAPHIC STUDY OF TUDKIYA, LALPUR VDC, SIRAHA DISTRICT

The Thesis Submitted to the Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences in Partial Fulfillment of the requirement for the Degree of Master in Anthropology

Submitted By Janak Bahadur Shahi

Tribhuvan University Kirtipur, Kathmandu March, 2010

Recommendation letter

Tribhuvan University Central Department of Sociology / Anthropology Kiritpur

It is certified that Mr. Janak Bahadur Shahi has completed dissertation entitled "Inter-caste Relationship in a Multi-ethnic Village: An Ethnographic Study of Tudkiya, Lalpur VDC, Siraha District" under my guidance and supervision. I recommend his dissertation for final approval and acceptance.

Mr. Tika Ram Gautam
Central Department of Sociology/ Anthropology
Tribhuvan University,
Kirtipur, Kathmandu
Date:

Approval letter

Tribhuvan University Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology Kirtipur

This dissertation presented by Janak Bahadur Shahi entitled "Inter-caste Relationship in a Multi-ethnic Village: An Ethnographic Study of Tudkiya, Lalpur VDC, Siraha District" has been accepted in the partial fulfillment of the requirement for the degree of Master of Arts (M.A.) in Anthropology.

Dissertation Evaluation Committee:
Chairperson:	Dr. Om P. Gurung
Member (Supervisor):	Mr. Tika Ram Gautam
Member (External):	Mr. Kapil Dahal
Date:

Dedication

I dedicate this dissertation in memory of late Dr. Saubhagya Shah

Acknowledgement

This ethnography has benefited from the assistance, inspiration, kindness and guidance of numerous people and institutions in many places. My deepest gratitude is to the people of Tudkiya, who have provided the roots of my thesis and shared with me many of their stories, insightful thoughts, joys, sorrowness and acceptance of my presence to observe and record their day to day on going village life. Without their generous co-operation, trust and hosptality, I can't believe, this study would have come to an end.

I am grateful to the family of Rajkumar Rai, Bakta Bahadur Rai, Laxman Rai, Ram Swarup Mahato, Ram Sada, Raju Pulami, Bishnu lama, Girwal Paswan, Bindeswar Sah (Teli), Munesar Mallik (Dom), Surendra Thankur (Hajam), Srawan Lama, Adhyani Pakhrin, Jhagdu Sah (Sudi), Uttimlal Ray, Uttimbal Sah (Teli), Chamuna Sah (Teli), Bodhalal Shrestha, Madan Yadav, Rajendra Ray, Mahesh Ray, Iswar Bhandari, Shukbir B.K., Trisna Kumar Yonjan, Hari Ballab Thakur (Hajam), Bharrat Rai, Shuvlal Rai, Matuklal Rai, Pravu Sah (Teli), Sobha Nayak (Sudi), Indra Suyal, Rekha Devi Sah (Teli), Rajeswari Rai, Savita Rai, Madanlal Tamang, Kapuleswor Thakur (Barhi) for their warm hospitality and invitation for innumerable cups of tea and generous meals.

I express deep condolence and sorrow on the untimely demise of my advisor Late Dr. Saubhagya Shah. I could not complete the task during his lifetime. I am very much inspired from his enthnographic insights.

Similarly, I owe a great deal of gratitude to my supervisor Mr. Tika Ram Gautam for his inspiration. He gave me direction, while I was in the transitional situation. I am grateful to my external examiner Mr. Kapil Dahal for his close scrutiny of my draft and his constructive suggestions to add some texture of the writing. Likewise, my deep respect goes to Prof. Dr. Om Prasad Gurung the department head for his kind acceptance of carrying out this research. Along with, I would like to acknowledge all the 'gurus' of the department for their intellectual nourishment throughout my graduate years and who also helped and inspired me in many ways during the research period.

I extend my thanks to friends and colleagues Madhu Giri, Tika B. Kunwar, Kalpana Thapa, Dilli Ram Timilisina, Sushil Padney, Reena Maharjan, Sujata Gauchan, Karunakar Upreti and Pol Gurung not only for their delightful company but also for giving me encouragement. I offer my special thanks to Miss Durga Dhami for her editing of the English language and Rejesh Shrestha of Sahara Computer Service, Kirtipur for efficient typing, setting and printing of this dissertation.

Janak Bahadur Shahi

Table of Contents

		Pa	ige No.
Reco	mmend	lation Letter	I
Approval Sheet
Ackı	Acknowledgement
Tabl	e of Co	ntents	V-VII
CHA	PTER	- I : Introduction	1-8
1.1	Backg	ground of the study	1
1.2	Stater	ment of Problem	2
1.3	Objec	etives of Study	3
1.4	Metho	odological Approach	4
	1.4.1	Fieldwork Experiences	4
	1.4.2	Tools and Techniques of Data Gathering	7
	1.4.3	Chapter Organization	7
CHA	PTER	- II : Literature Review	9-25
2.1	Defin	ing Caste System	9
2.2	Caste	and Occupation	9
2.3	Caste	and Hierarchy	13
2.4	Caste	and Caste Council	18
2.5	Intra-	caste Division, Marriage and Sects	22
CHA	PTER	- III : The Setting: The Place and the People	26-34
CHA	PTER	- IV : Economy	35-65
4.1	Conv	entional Domains of Economy	35
	4.1.1	Animal Sharing (Damposhiya) and Bullocks Sharing (Harbhaji)	38
	4.1.2	Caste-Based Occupations	40
		4.1.2.1 Hajam	41
		4.1.2.2 Barhi	45

		4.1.2.3 B.K. (hill)	47
		4.1.2.4 Chamar	47
		4.1.2.5 Dom	49
4.2	Chang	Changing Economy and New Opportunities
	4.2.1	Foreign Employment	56
	4.2.2	Government and Non-Government Employments	59
	4.2.3	Local Retail Business and Other Economic Activities	61
		4.2.3.1 Rickshaw Pulling and Fire Wood Selling	62
		4.2.3.2 Village available Work, Transportation of Cassia
		Leaves and Jackfruit	63
СНА	PTER	- V : Intra-Caste Division and Hierarchy	66-90
5.1	Comr	Commensal Hierarchy and Its Previous Operation
	5.1.1	Commensal Hierarchy at Present	79
	5.1.2	Commensal Relations between non-Dalit and Dalit	81
	5.1.3	Commensality: Dom Versus other Castes	85
5.2	Conte	ested Hierarchy	88
СНА	PTER	- VI: Jat Samaj, Behaviour Control and
		Maintaing Caste Identity	91-109
6.1	Jat Sa	maj Prosecution to Inter-caste Marriage and Elopement	95
6.2	Differences within Jat Samaj		102
6.3	Jat Samaj Tiers
СНА	PTER	- VII: Social and Cultural Space for Inter-caste Relations	110-123
7.1	Marriage
7.2	Death		112
7.3	Chhev	war	113
7.4	Ritual	Friends	114

7.5	Faguwa	115
7.6	Bilauki Ritual	117
7.7	Village Territorial Deity and Temple	117
Cha	pter - VIII : Summary and Conclusion	124-127 128-130 131-132
Refe	erences
Glos	ssary of Local Terms
Ann	ex	133

Glossary of Local terms

aghori - personified God who takes meat and liquor arbikopi - state of devotion in which sect follower has discarded his/ her relation to family

B.k. - biswakarma (blacksmith) babu - term to affection of young one baishnay - a sect of Hindu religion (specially in Tarai area)

bani - labour charge baniya - businessman bauwa - term of affection to young one in maithili language bhagwati - goddess bhai - brother bhandara - sect people's feast

bhar - obligatory responsibility on the part of kin to pay tribute to other kin bhauri - conventional barter system between Udayapur and the study area

bhoj cut - exclusion from feast bilauki - a ritual performed before the marriage heading to bride house brathbandha - holy thread wearing ritual chhewar - boy's first hair cutting ceremony of tarai castes chilum - small smoking mud pipe chulo khane - the custom of some groups who separately self cooked and not allow to touch those who take food in market places dakshina - money offered to Hajam or Brahman by client after completion of ritual

dala(i) - basket

dewan - second rank man of informal caste body of terai caste dhamini - is a collective name for God and Goddesses

Dhankuta - who's occupation to unhusk paddy dhoti - long piece of cloth worn by male dhuni - sacred fire place dhup - fumigation

diyad - consaguineal relatives

dosh - ritual friend

gauwa - equally used synonym of jat samaj gawadi - particular tarai caste's village level enforcing body gotra - exogamous agnatic descent group traced to a mythical ancestor grihat - client of service-caste gumchha - thin cotton towel guru - teacher gwali - cow shed

gwar - synonym of yadav hariani - given payment and cloths to chamar woman at the end of his childbirth assisting services

hatiya - the place where temporary market takes place

jat bhoj - caste brotherhood feast jat cut - exclusion from caste jat samaj - village level caste rule enforcing body of particular tarai caste iat - caste; species

jogira - a kind of questioning and answering through the medium of songs between two choruses at holi festival kabirpanthi - sub-sect of baishnav who takes material approach and refuses to worship god and goddesses kabula - promise to deity made to offer something or worship with a condition of fulfilling certain desired thing kaniyanirachhan - birde's first face seeing ceremony at patrifocal house

kankar - tobacco kanthi - small sacred wood piece that sect followers worn either on neck or arm

katha - story

khalifa - local word equally used for pujegri

khan - annual grainpaid system to service rendering castes khnoch - certain places of udayapur district previously people of Tudkiya went for transaction; gorge khut - sub-division of tarai caste kirtan - holy songs that performed by group in different occasions

kolhu - traditional oil pressing wood machine kumar - boy age below the 10 years that needing for dhamani puja

kurta - loose shirt

kurthidal - one kind of rugged pulse kutumb - affinal relatives

lama - a man who officiate Tamang ritual mangen - first rank man of informal caste body of tarai caste mantra - spell

nagpuja - snake worship nankin - spiced fried pulses

pan - betel leaf

panchayat - inter-caste meeting of local elites panchmole - committee of five men who decide the price of animal.

panghait - sub-division of tarai caste parsauti - chamar women's traditional service on occasion of child birth to women client

parwal - perennial vegetable plant

patti - two step upper body of jat samaj

pokhari - pond

pugegri - who officiates worship at common village deity

puja - worship

ramaut - sub-sect of baishnav

sakkar - molasse

sampradaish - sub-sect of baishnay

sanskar - creed

santabhekh - sect of magar sida - uncooked rice, vegetables and pulse especially offered to Hajam or Brahman on occasion by clients (reciprocal gift)

than - the common worshipping place

thar - sub-castes clan

tika - sectarian mark made on the forehead by saffron, sandal or unbroken rice

tilak - bridal payment given to bridegroom at the day of marriage engagement (dowry)

tudka - folded leaf bowl made for instant water drinking tupi - tuft of hair left on the crown of the head by Hindu males