ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research "Income tax collection from commercial banks to total revenue in Nepal" has been prepared for the partial fulfillment of the requirement of the Master of Business Studies.

This thesis is the result of my visit, consult, observation and self-evaluation. It is the collection of data and information that I know and I learnt during data collection. This thesis is not the outcome of my single labor. Many people, books, bulletins and even different sweet and sour scenes I observed directly and indirectly are the equal contributors. I warmly appreciate everyone who helps me to come out with this thesis and provided me guidelines and assistance to achieve goal.

I would like to convey my hearty gratitude to my respected thesis supervisor Mr. Surendra keshar Amatya(Thesis supervisor), Nepal Commerce Campus, for his scholarly, affectionate and useful guidance. I am equally indebted to Prof. Dr. Bihari Binod Pokharel, Head of Research Department, Nepal Commerce Campus for his guidance from the preliminary stage till the final stage of this thesis. I would like to express my sincere thanks to the library staffs of Nepal Commerce Campus, Shanker Dev Campus, Public Youth Campus, Bhaktapur Multiple Campus, Central Library (T.U.),Inland Revenue Department, Nepal Rastra Bank and other commercial bank, and personnel also deserve my cordial thanks for their kind support.

I want to pronounce the words of gratitude to all my friends, teachers and campus staff for their assistance in my thesis work and provided me continuous inspiration as well as contribution for my academic achievement.

Last but not least, I want to express my thanks to all the authors, whose books, journals and thesis paper have been consulted during the preparation of this thesis. I am thankful to Mr. Ram Chandra Jakibanjar, Mr. Sanjay Koju and ABC Enterprises Bhaktapur for their cooperation in computer work while preparing this thesis.
