ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study is an outcome of cumulative effort of a number of individuals and institutions. I am very much indebted to those institutions and individuals. My heartfelt gratitude is extended to my dissertation supervisor Dr. Manahari Dhakal who not gave me flexibility in a great deal from topic selection to the organization of this dissertation but motivated me through the research and writing process. Through his insightful guidance, supervision inspiration and valuable suggestions this work came into its present form.

I am deeply indebted to all the teachers of Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, Tribhuvan University for their continuous inquiries into my dissertation gave me the necessary impetus to complete my dissertation with greater concentration and diligence. I want to thank Dr. Tikaram Gautam (External Evaluator) who supported me to in providing various insights in during the period of research project. They have very kindly sent their message of goodwill for this treaty in spite of their heavy responsibilities and commitments for which I am very grateful to them.

I am very thankful to Bhogendra Kumar Sah for gave me insightful feedback with literature review and methodological suggestions. I am heartily indebted to Bikram Wagle and Min Koirala, who not only reviewed my dissertation from top to bottom, but gave me valuable feedback and insight which were very constructive for my dissertation. I express my profound thanks to my parents whose moral support and inspiration contributed greatly to the successful completion of my study.

Above all, I wish to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to all the people of Kadampur-5 who provided all information's as well as their cooperation extended in the field. Last but not the least I would also like to thanks those, whose participation made this study possible.
