ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I wish to express my sincere appreciation and heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Ms. NeeraShrestha, for her invaluable suggestions, encouraging guidance and wise counsel that made this thesis work a reality.

I would also like to thank coordinator and all the teachers, specially to Ms. PramilaLakhe of Padma Kanya Multiple Campus, Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu, for their encouragement, inspiration, valuable comments and special guidance on the preparation of this study.

I am grateful to all the respondents of NEPSE and SEBON, who responded to me for this study. Without their support and cooperation this thesis would not have been completed. I would like to thank them whole heartedly for giving me their valuable time and providing the required information for this study.

I would like to thank my friend DurgaRanaMagar and my brother Naveen Upadhyaya for their help and support in many ways to successfully complete this study.

I owe everything to my parents. No degree of appreciation will suffice for their love, care, understanding, encouragement and mortal support.
