ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to present my gratitude to my dissertation supervisor Dr. Mana Hari Dhakal for his continuous support, guidance and encouragement during the fieldwork and dissertation writings. Similarly I would like to thank Prof. Tulsi Ram Pandey (head of the department of sociology) is my source of inspiration as academic figures. I am grateful to all my honorable teachers of department of sociology, Tribhuvan University, kirtipur, selected respondents and the local people of the Malumela VDC of Bajhang district. I would like to thanks to all my friends who helped me in any regards. I sincerely thank to my husband who assisted me to data collection during field work. I would like to thanks to my parents, who always encouraged me, for higher education. I sincerely thank to all the people from my field area who have shared their pain and sorrow with me during my field work. I also wish to express my sincere gratitude to all the staff of libraries and other institutions for providing me the required information to complete the study. Without their sacrifice, hardships, rearing and caring I would not be in this stage. Thus, all these above mentioned people are strength of this study.
