Acknowledgement

In the course of the grounding of this dissertation, it would not have been possible without the help of supervisor, friends as well as the respondents of the study area and related institutions. So first of all, I would like to express hearty gratitude to my respected supervisor Lecturer Tika Ram Gautam, Central Department of Sociology and Anthropology, for his precious ideas, support, encouragement, and constructive comments and suggestions during various stages of preparing this dissertation.

I would like to show my gratitude to my respected teacher Prof. Dr. Om Gurung, head of CDSA for his valuable input to this study. Similarly, my appreciation goes to my external examiner lecturer Madhusudan Subedi, CDSA. I would also like to express my gratitude to my respected teacher lecturer Bisal Shreshtha, Mahendra Multiple College, Dharan, for his precious ideas and suggestions.

I would like to thank to the secretariat of Bharaul Village Development Committee and Villagers of Milan Chowk for their positive support and co-operation during my field study. I am also thankful to my friends Sajana Bhattarai, Mohan Sapkota, baini Durga and vai Ganesh for their constructive support.

I would like to remember Sova Ghimire, my soul-mate, for her support and excellent performance while grounding this dissertation.

I have no any words to express my sincere gratitude to my parents, brothers and family members for their continuous encouragement and financial support.
