ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to thank all those who made possible the research on which this thesis is based, assisted in the field work or in the analysis of the data and contributed in any other way to its production.

During my field work I received assistance from numerous individuals attached to official institutions and government departments. I am very much indebted to Mr. Kapil Babu Dahal, my thesis supervisor as constant source of information. Without his regular inspiration and motivation, this work wouldn't be possible. It was his insight of the research materials that brought me thus far. For me to stand at this juncture of thesis submission, our head of department Prof. Dr. Om Gurung had a great role in proving the confidence to stand any pressure and the required moral booster.

I would also like to after my profound gratitude to on my honourable teachers as well as the staffs of the Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, Tribhuvan University, Kirtipur for thesis indispensable support of various stages of the Study.

I would like to thank to the Pasthekhola Community Forest's Executive Committee members of 2067, Khema Raj Neupane (Chairman), Indira Neupane (Vice-Chairman), Tirth Neupane (Secretary), Sakuntala Neupane (Treasurer), Krishna Maya Neupane (Member), Shree Prasad Neupane (Member), Maina Neupane (Member), Puspa Raj Neupane BaneRukha, (Member) and Nabaraj B.K. (Member). Founder President Rajendra Neupane and other general members who were concerned in this study for their kind cooperation and management.

My heartily honours go to my father Surya Prasad Neupane, Mother Krishna Maya Neupane, brothers Ramesh Neupane, Dinesh Neupane, sister Sarala Neupane, Sadhana Neupane and misses and son Tara Neupane and Sauharda Neupane for their invaluable contribution to my career development and great patience and encouragement during my study.
