ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my thesis supervisor Dr. Uma Shankar Prasad, Lecturer of the Centre Department of Economics, T.U. Kirtipur. His patience, enthusiasm, co-operation and suggestions made me present this research work to produce in the present form. His brilliant skillful supervision enriched this study higher than my expectation. I could not remain any more without giving heartfelt thanks to Dr. Uma Shankar Prasad for his painstaking supervision throughout the study period. This research work would not be possible without his stimulation, inspiration and cooperation.

Further, yet importantly sense of respect goes to my mother Mrs. Ram Maya Shrestha for strong support economically as well as in regular encouragement in every step to make me in present

The officials of the Government and Non Government Organizations of and other concerned authorities are also thankful for their keen interest and great support while conducting the study. Distinguished personalities, the locals and the other stakeholders contacted, interviewed, and the sources of information revealed are also thankfully acknowledged.

I also would like to thank to my friends Kishor Shrestha, Ram Prasad Shrestha, Suresh Balami and other friends also deserve my thanks who directly and indirectly provided me inspiration and valuable suggestion during the course of this study.
