This thesis 'The Cultural Heritage of Makhan Mandap' is the outcome of my longstanding study of archeological and cultural courses. I am indebted to all my teachers, professors, friends and the family of Central Department of Nepalese History, Culture and Archaeology, Tribhuvan University.

I want to express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor Mr. Madan Kumar Rimal who provided criticism and encouragement at the right time from my proposal writing till the end of the thesis. Head of Department, Prof. Dr. Dhan Bahadur Kunwar for his kind guidance and valuable suggestions. I would like to take this opportunity to extend my sincere gratitude to my respected family for their guidance and valuable inputs throughout the whole thesis writing periods. I want to express my gratitude toward Prof. Dr. Beena Poudyal for the internal evaluation and correction of my thesis with appropriate suggestions. I am also very much obliged to Dr. Mahes Raj Pant for his constructive support and innovative suggestions. Dr. Jagaman Gurung, Mr. Prakash Darnal, Mr. Indra Man Singh Suwal and Shriju Pradhan (KMC) for the concern they showed on my thesis and providing me valuable suggestions for my work.

I would also like to thank all my fellow students of Nepalese History, Culture and Archaeology of Tribhuvan University who have helped me with utmost keen interest to complete this thesis. And my thesis would not have been complete without the support and suggestions from Mr. Mandan Sen Bajracharya, Mr. Baldev JuJu, Mr. Parshuram Shrestha and Mr. Mangal Man Singh of Makhan Mandap.

I would like to express my special thanks to Dr. Gyanendra Ratna Tuladhar, Mr. Ekaram Singh, Mr. Nutandhar Sharma, Mr. Karna Maharjan and Mr. Bharat Giri for the encouragement and ideas they shared with me and taking time to comment on this thesis with suitable suggestions.
