ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The present study The Changing Pattern of Livelihood: A Study of Kami Community in Lamatar VDC, Lalitpur has designed to fulfill the partial requirements of Master's in Sociology/Anthropology.

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to Dr. Sandhya Basnet, Associate Professor, Central Depart of Sociology/Anthropology, TU Kirtipur who helped me a lot in completing thesis dissertation and his constant inspiration & in valuable guidance throughout the research period. It would not been possible for me to complete my study without her supervision, advice and direction. I heartily would like to thank her for her support.

I am very grateful to Prof. Dr. Om Gurung, the head of the department and other respected teachers for providing valuable suggestions, information and comments.

I am extremely grateful to the inhabitants of Kami community of Lamatar VDC, Lalitpur for their supportive role for sharing their opinion, knowledge and experiences during my field trip. My special thanks goes to Mr. Anu Kumari B.K. and Mrs. Shanti Sunuwar of Lamatar VDC, Lalitpur for their spontaneous help for providing the related data to my research work. I am also grateful to Mr. Madhu Chhetri, VDC Secretary of Lamata VDC, Lalitpur for providing the valuable information during my village in that Kami community.

My sincere thanks go to my parents, my sister Binu Dhungel and my friend Parash Mudvari, who have always support and encouraged me directly and indirectly.

Lastly, I would like to thank to Durka Man Maharjan (Durka Computer System, Kirtipur) for computer to prepare this research work.
