ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All successful research works are the result of contribution made by a wide range of co-operative hands. This study is no exception either. During the entire period of the study, I received innovative advice and encouragement from my respected guide Mr. Kapil Babu Dahal. His invaluable guidance, feedback and suggestion were instrumental in shaping this study and have greatly helped to me to improve the quality of this thesis. I am grateful to Mr. Madhu Sudhan Subedi for his guidance as external guide. First of all, I would like to express my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to him.

My sincere gratitude goes to Dr. Om Gurung, Head of the Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu for his suggestion and encouragement to be carried out this research work. Also I wish to acknowledge my gratefulness all the respected teachers and staff of the Central Department of Sociology/anthropology for their sympathy and cooperation during my association with the department. . I also express my sincere thank to all my friends especially Nabin Acharya and Santosh Pandey, for their unforgettable help throughout the study. There are many others, who have helped me undertake this study; I express my sincere thanks to all of them. I am proud and delighted to thank my mother and my brother for their continuous support and guidance and for always being there when things had gone wrong for me.

Finally, I am grateful to all the respondents who have helped me to come out with this dissertation, without whom this study would have been impossible.
