ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis entitled "State of Foreign Labour Migration in Eastern Hill of Nepal: A Case Study of Dandabazar VDC, Dhankuta" has been prepared for partial fulfillment of the requirement for master's Degree in Sociology.

I am pleased to take this opportunity to express my deep dense of gratitude to my thesis supervisor Dr. Mukta Singh Tamang, at the Central Department of Sociology and Anthropology, University Campus, Kirtipur, T.U. for his guidance, encouragement and constructive suggestions throughout my work. Similarly, I am grateful to Prof. Dr. Om Prasad Gurung, the Head of the Central Department of Sociology and Anthropology, for his invaluable suggestions and guidance. I also feel privileged to express my gratitude to all teachers of Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology for their gracious response to my queries.

I am extremely grateful to the ward members of all wards of Dandabazar VDC, who helped me to collect the prior information about the foreign migrant workers of their respective wards. I am equally indebted to Mr. Bishnu Prasad Marasini and Mr. Mahendra Gautam for their help in statistical analysis of the data obtained through case study. My thanks go to Mr. Kamal Magar, Mr. Bir Bahadur Bhandari and Mr. Ranjiv Thapa who helped me for data collection during field work. Thanks are also due to all respondents and their families who provided necessary information by answering all my questions in the interview.

It is my most pleasant opportunity to express my gratitude to my parents who encouraged me in this project with warmth and affection. I also would like to thank Mr. Mohan Shrestha (Proprietor of Mars Photocopy Center, Kirtipur) for the efficient word processing of the manuscript so as to bring the work into reality.
