This research paper has been prepared for the partial fulfillment of Master's Degree in Nepalese History, Culture and Archaeology under the faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences, Tribhuvan University, Kirtipur. I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to head of department Professor Dr. Bina Poudyal for granting me the opportunity to prepare this research paper. I would like to thank Professor Dr. Dhan Bahadur Kunwor, Dr. Madan Rimal and Mrs. Nirmala Pokhrel for reviewing the thesis proposal and providing the valuable suggestion. I am much indebted to my research guide Prem Lama for his constant support and guidance throughout the research period. He also helped me to find the books and papers relevant to this study.

I was assisted in the field by numerous people providing the valuable information, welcoming me at their village and houses, involving me in their rituals and festivals and guiding me to find the way to visit next village. They also provided me the local food and drinks. I am much thankful to all of them. I would also like to thank my friends Lok Bahadur Magar and Rit Bahadur Bhandari of Shaktikhor, Kusum Chepang of Kolar, Ganesh Bahadur Magar of Upardang Gadi, Vishwonath Gurung of Chandibhanjyang, and Prem Thapa of Padampur who have given valuable information and input for this study.

I would like to thank my colleagues: Buddhi Sen Chaudhary, Sunita Timalisina, Shanti Sherma, Bidur Bhattarai, Kamala Poudel and Dipesh Nakarmi for their suggestion and support.
