ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I would like to express my deep acknowledgment to the Central Department of Sociology, for providing successful research works and wide range of co-operative hands me to write thesis in this title. I received innovative advice and encouragement from my respected supervisor Dr. Tikaram Gautam. His invaluable guidance, feedback and suggestion were instrumental in shaping this study and have greatly helped me to improve the quality of this thesis.

My sincere thanks of this task go to my parents and another family members who always encourage me in study, personnel of DFO, Myagdi who provide me necessary information about CF and CFUGs committee. Besides these, I would like to thanks to Prof. Dr. Tulsi Ram Pandey, Head of the Central Department of Sociology, Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu for his suggestion and encouragement to be carried out this research work as well as my supervisor and others who directly and indirectly help me to complete my research work.

I would like to thank personally to my seniors brothers, Ishori Aryal, Nigam Silwal and sister, Rita Sharma for their regular encouragement and guidance, without them this thesis would never be completed. On this moment I would like to give special thanks my Husband and other family member who are supporting me throughout my course of study

Regards

Rita Khatri
