ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In writing this thesis, I have mostly relied upon my thesis approval committee at Tribhuvan University, Central Department of Sociology, Kirtipur, Kathmandu, Various persons and institutions. I am pleased to take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to my thesis supervisor Associate Pro. Dr. Tikaram Gautam for his most competent guidance, encouragement and constructive suggestions throughout my work. I would like to express my sincere thanks to the respected teachers and the staff of this department for their suggestions and help. I would like to thank my thesis external sir Dr. Surendra Mishra for his kind co-operation.

I am equally indebted to Mr. Indra Lama, Mrs. Sumina Bishwakarma and Mr. Ram Kumar Bishwakarma who helped me in data collection. Thanks are also due to all the social leaders of Dhanauji who provided the support to me by answering all my questions in the interview.

It is my most pleasant opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks to my wife Bimala Bishwakarma who shared all my stress and strains and supported me in each and every step during my study period from the beginning to end. I would like to express due respect to my closest sister Manju Karki and closest friend Madan Aryal who encouraged and supported me every moment.
