ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

To my father, mother, sister and family and cherished friends for supporting and inspiring to always work on things that I love.

A very special gratitude goes out to Sulochana for relentless reminder of due dates for thesis and inspiration towards perfection, enduring me and always letting me be myself.

I am also grateful to my thesis guide Mr. Prem Chalaune for giving me motivation to do a real thesis work and by providing me books of six pioneer Sociologists even though it was quite a daunting challenge to which I have merely scratched the surface.

To all my colleagues and members of institutions I work for including Pinnacle Scholars Academy and oNepali.

And finally dedicated to my childhood that always continues along with all the children of Nepal and world for living a special age called childhood and surviving through with smiles despite being in need or in privilege.

I would like to thank all for the inspiration.
