ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is prepared and submitted to the Faculty of Management as partial fulfillment of the requirements of the degree of Master in Business Studies (M. B. S).

Many helpful hands are involved to support me for preparing this thesis. I would like to express my deep gratitude towards reverent supervisor Mr Jit Bahadur K.C. for incisive and constant guidance, who have immensely contributed his time and labor to guide me for the preparation of this thesis. Without his guidance and valuable suggestions, it would have been extremely difficult to bring it to fruition.

I gratefully acknowledge the help rendered by Dr. Bihari Binod Pokharel, Head of the Research Department, Nepal Commerce Campus. I also express my sincere thanks to all the Teachers and Staff of Nepal Commerce Campus whose kind co- operation have made it possible to complete the work. I convey my hurtful thanks to the staffs of central library of T. U. and library of Nepal Commerce Campus for their cooperation in providing different types of material required. I am very much grateful to the personnel of land Revenue office, Land Reforms Office and Land Revenue Department for providing me necessary data.

Finally, I can't be silent without thanking to my friends, family members for their kind cooperation and encouragement. Especially I am very much appreciated to my friends Mr. Lalit Bahadur Chand, Mr. Laxman Bhandari and Mrs. Laxmi Bhat who helped me in each and every step during the preparation of this thesis.
