Acknowledgement

The completion of this thesis is a matter of great pleasure for me. It has fulfilled the partial requirement for the degree of master of business studies as well as helped to enhance my practical knowledge on the subject matter. It wouldn't have been completed without invaluable support, supervision and suggestions from my teachers, elders, colleagues, and friends. Therefore, I would like to share the joy with all who owe equal credit for it.

First of all my sincere gratitude goes to my honorable thesis supervisors, Mr. Dinesh Man Malego, assistant campus chief of Patan Multiple Campus who helped me by providing significant ideas, encouragement and techniques besides their invaluable time. I would like to express my warm appreciation towards the programme coordinator of MBS, Mr. Shiva Prasad Pokharel for his continual and solid guidance.

Let me offer my sincere thanks to the staffs of Nepal Oil Corporation especially to Mr. Jayaraj Acharya, Manager Finance Department; Mr. Nagendra Shah, Charter accountant; Mr Makund Prasadh Dungal, Manager Distribution Department for their support and cooperation in collecting data and other information during the study. Other staffs of head office, Nepal Oil Corporation Babarmahal are also thankful to me. All staffs of library Patan Multiple Campus, Shankerdev Campus, and Central library of Tribhuwan University Kirtipur deserve hearty thanks.

I would like to thank my parents, for co-operation in this Thesis.
