ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This research study on "Problems and Prospects of Stock Market in Nepal" has been prepared for the fulfillment of partial requirement of Master of Business Studies Program. For this, firstly I would like to express my profound gratitude to my respected thesis supervisor, Mr. Arjun Prasad Shrestha for his valuable comments with continuous guidance and kind support. In absence of his valuable guidance and comments, this study would not have taken its shape.

I'm also very much grateful to all the respondents, the staff members of SEBON and NEPSE who co-operated me to give their valuable time and required materials. Likewise I would like to thank all the teachers of Patan Multiple Campus, and librarians for providing books, thesis and good environment for reading.

I also wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to my family and friends for the valuable support and encouragement to complete this study.

Finally, I hope this study will make some contributions in the fields of Nepalese Stock Market and its overall development.
