Banking sector is a part of the financial market. It serves as a link between suppliers and users of capital funds. It is a mechanism for the mobilization for the public savings and channelizing them in productive investments. Development and expansion of banking sector is essential for the rapid economic growth of the country. In order to enhance the role of banking sector in economic activities, it is essential to follow financial resource easily and simple manner which would, in turn, help to achieve the economic development economy development of the country. Viewed in this perspective, the study on Investment and Fund Mobilization Pattern of Nepalese Joint Venture Banks (A Study of Nabil Bank Ltd., Everest Bank Ltd. and Standard Chartered Bank Nepal Ltd.). assumed as a greater significance. I hope it will be beneficial to further academic researchers and other interested people as well.

I owe a deep of gratitude to Mr. Sanjay Shrestha Lecturer of Thakur Ram Multiple Campus, Birgunj, Parsa for his constant encouragement, patient guidance and valuable supervision at every stage of my work. This work would not have been materialized in the present form without his incisive observations and intellectual direction in the course of completion.

I am also grateful to Dr. Deepak Shakya, Head of Research Committee, Thakur Ram Multiple Campus, Birgunj, Parsa whose valuable suggestion and co-operation enable me to write this thesis in the present form.

Thanks are also due to the staffs of NABIL BANK, EVEREST BANK, STANDARD CHARTERED BANK LIMITED for providing the annual reports, without which this research study would not have been possible.

I would like to express debt of gratitude to my parents & friends for their continuous support in my efforts.

Needless to say, to error is human kind and I am also no exception, so I alone am responsible for any deficiencies that may have reminded in this work.
