ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

All the successful attempts are the result of contribution of some co-operative hands. A number of individuals have helped and encouraged me in various ways in completing this study. Though I may not be able to mention the names of them, I hereby wish to express my special gratitude to the following individuals.

First, I am highly indebted to my respected teacher, Krishna Bahadur Bhattachan for his valuable guidance and supervision to conduct and complete the Thesis.

I wish to express my gratitude to Prof. Dr. Om Gurung, Head of the Central Department of Sociology, for his valuable suggestion and comments. Moreover, I am deeply indebted to all my respected teachers for their valuable advices and inspiration to complete this Thesis.

I am deeply indebted to V.D.C. secretary of the Sangla VDC, who helped me in this work right from its inception and whenever I needed the help. I am also greatly obliged to all the respondents who helped me collect the required information. I express my sincere thanks to all those who helped me directly or indirectly to bring this task to a completion.

Finally, my especial thanks goes to Mr. Khem Raj Kharel who inspired and helped me to every step of my life.
