ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am gratefully indebted to my supervisor, Mr. Jiban Mani Poudel, Lecturer of Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, Tribhuvan University for his excellent guidance, supervision and inspiration for the timely preparation of this dissertation.

I am highly grateful to Prof. Dr. Om Gurung, Head of the Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, for providing me an opportunity to carry out this study. I am also equally grateful to the faculty members of Central Departments of Sociology for their valuable suggestion and cooperation.

I would like to thank all people of Basantapur bazaar for providing information and kind cooperation during the field visit. Similarly, I would like to thank all my class friends, mainly Namita Pokharel and Sabita Koirala for their valuable suggestions and help.

Finally, my hearty thanks go to my family members for their encouragement and support. My special thanks go to my husband Mr. Rajan Niraula, daughter Manaswi Niraula and brother Saroj Pokharel for their unconditional support, encouragement and guidance. Without their kind cooperation this work would have never been completed in this form.
