ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

At the very onset, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my supervisor Surendra Mishra, Associate Professor at the Department of Sociology/Anthropology, Tribhuvan University, who provided me scholarly guidance, suggestions and encouragement from the outset to the end of the study. His kind support and cooperation provided to me during the dissertation writing will remain ever in my heart.

I am grateful to Prof. Dr. Om Gurung, head of the Department of Sociology/ Anthropology, Tribhuvan University, for his kind permission to prepare the dissertation. I would also like to express my gratitude to my father Dr. Shashi Kumar Thapa and Uncle Prem Shrestha for supporting me. I would also like to express my gratitude to the respondents. The co-operation extended by the street children for the field survey, has been highly appreciated, without them; this study would not have been possible. It has been immense learning experience for me.

It is needed very please to extend my heartfelt thanks to the staff of CWIN especially for Mr. Indra Maharjan, Technical Co-ordinator, who provided me all necessary data and required information for the study. Similarly, I thank librarians of Central Library, Tribhuvan University for providing various books, reports and other publications.

Finally, I would like to thank all people who have directly or indirectly contributed to accomplish this study.

Sushrut Kumar Thapa
