ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I want to express my profound gratitude to all of the people and institutions who have kindly and generously extended their help in this study. Without their cooperation and suggestions, this endeavour would not have been accomplished in this shape.

First of all, I would like to express my gratitude to my respected teacher and supervisor Dr. Shambhu Prashad Kattel, lecturer of Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu who provided me with his valuable time and reference books and constantly extended his precious guidance and supervision throughout this study and to its completion. I sincerely thank my external examiner Mr. Bhanu Timsina, lecturer of Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu for his valuable comments and suggestions during the final examination of this dissertation. I am also grateful to Prof. Dr. Om Gurung, Head of Central Department of Sociology/Anthropology, Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu, Nepal for his approval of this dissertation.

I am thankful to Tribhuvan University Central Library, Kirtipur and Patan Book Shop, Patan for providing me access to the necessary reading materials. I am also thankful to Lalitpur Sub-Metropolitan City Office, Lalitpur and Ward Office of 16, Patan for providing relevant data and information about the study area and Shrestha peoples.

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to all of the study people who shared with me their own views, experiences and practices regarding my study topic with kind cooperation in a friendly environment. I am also highly indebted to the Astrologers Mr. Tulshi Nath Joshi, Mr. Uttam Prasad Joshi, Mr. Narendra Prasad Joshi and Mr. Reman Joshi for providing me with their valuable time and for sharing their thoughts and information about this study. And I am especially thankful to Astrologer Mr. Reman Joshi for providing me with reference books, appointments with other Astrologers and assistance during the conversations and interviews with the Astrologers.

I am highly thankful to my friends and classmates of Tribhuvan University, Kathmandu for their suggestions and help in preparing this dissertation. Special thanks goes to my friend Ian Calder from New Zealand who provided me his valuable time for precious advice and grammar correction in this dissertation.

Last but not the least, I would like to express my love and gratitude to my family, especially to my mother who always encourages and inspires me towards achieving higher educational achievement and provides me enough time to study without doing household works. Similarly, I am indebted to my elder brothers who supported and helped me in preparation of this dissertation. Because of my family's warm love, care, inspiration and economic support, I have been able to achieve my higher education.

Finally, I am grateful to all those individuals whoever helped me during this dissertation preparation, all of them deserve my special thanks.
