ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is an outcome of the continuous supervision and encouragement of my revered supervisor Shankarnath Paudel. Associate Professor of Tribhuvan University, Department of Sociology & Anthropology, Prithivi Narayan Campus, Pokhara. Of course, it would not have been completed in this form without his invaluable guidance and regular inspiration. Therefore, I am very much indebted and grateful to Mr. Paudel and so I would like to offer my profound gratitude to him.

I am extremely grateful to my respect Associate Professor Shanti Bhusal, Head of the Department of Sociology & Anthropology and Associate Professor Prithvi Narayan Campus for providing me the valuable comments and suggestions.

I would also be thankful to Mr. Tika Ram Koirala for his help in correction of error & omissions.

I would like to extend my special thanks to Mr. Tulsi Prasad Poudel, secretary of Majhathana, V.D.C, for providing me necessary data of related VDC.

I also thank to my wife Mrs. Indira Tiwari, who encouraged and assisted me by giving time for this work.

I would like to thank Mr. Arjun Thapa Magar for word processing and typing setting.

I would not be able to come in this stage of life without love and affection of my mother and father, So I am indebted to my parent.

I am alone fully responsible for the remaining errors and omissions in this thesis.
