Acknowledgements

This dissertation is the outcome of my long term study on African's predicament in America and their consciousness to identify their heritage in America. This research work is prepared under the supervision of my honorable academic guardian Dr. Anand Sharma.

I am very much grateful to pro. Dr. Krishna Chandra Sharma, former Head of the Central Department of English, Dr. Beerendra Pandey, co-ordinator of M. Phil. Programme, and Dr. Sanjeev Uprety, former co-ordinator of the programme who cordially helped and provided me the opportunity to make this research.

Similarly, I am greatly thankful to BAHA library which provided me opportunity to use electronic resources. I would also like to thank American library which helped me by providing text of Black literature. I can't help thanking Srijana Wosti and Rohit Thapa who helped me provide text from American library when I was under the pressure of time.

Likewise, I'm indebted to my parents, who have always encouraged me to continue my study, and wife, Ganga Ghimire, who inspired and encouraged me to complete this research work by providing conducive environment with my study. I am equally thankful to my son, Regal Ghimire and daughter, Reega Ghimire, who helped me being kind to my study.
