Acknowledgements

The success and final outcome of this research required a lot of guidance and assistance from many people and I am extremely privileged to have got this all along the completion of my project. All I have done is only due to such supervision and assistance.

First of all, I would like to express my sincere gratitude and appreciation to my thesis supervisor Associate Professor Laxman Bhatta, Central Department of English, Tribhuvan University, whose ideas and efforts are very much embedded into this thesis I would like to express my appreciation to Professor Dr. Anirudhra Thapa, (HoD) English department for his insightful ideas on research. I am also thankful to Professor Dr. Jiblal Sapkota for support and encouragement in course of research. I am also thankful to Associate Professor Mr. Badri Prasad Acharya, Central Department of English, Tribhuvan University for his continuous support throughout this research.

I am equally grateful to all the respected lecturers and friends of the Department of English who equally provided me invaluable advice and suggestions. I would like to extend my gratitude to my dear husband Mr. Debednra Kandel without his motivation and support I would not have completed this thesis work.

Finally, I would like to express my deep respect to my seniors, writers, critics, theorists, researchers and scholars whose work guided me in the path of my study.
