

Tribhuvan University

Illusion of Agency in Benazir Bhutto's *Daughter of the East: An Autobiography

A Thesis Submitted to the Central Department of English, T.U.

In Partial Fulfillment of the Requirements for the

Degree of Master of Arts in English

By

Mumaya Thapa

Roll No: 217

T.U. Regd. No.: 9-2-307-95-2012

Central Department of English

Kirtipur, Kathmandu

April 2019

Acknowledgements

I am above all indebted to my respected Supervisor Lecturer Shankar Subedi for his unconditional and untiring guidance in the successful completion of this research. I would like to express my wholehearted gratitude to him for his priceless time, friendly guidance and continuous motivation to explore more which assisted in the entire construction of the thesis. His academic command throughout the thesis is incomparable.

I would also like to extend my gratitude to respected Lecturer Diwakar Upadhyaya for his valuable assistance in helping me to sort out qualities of a research paper, ways of researching and writing a research paper as well as to shape my thesis proposal. Likewise, I need especially to mention Lecturer Raj Kumar Baral and Lecturer Hem Lal Pandey and thank them for helping me to explore the potential subject for the thesis. Similarly, I am tremendously indebted to respected Lecturer Badri Prasad Acharya for helping me broaden theoretical insights in me. Besides, I am thankful to the team of proposal defense that includes Lecturer Jiva Nath Lamsal and Prof. Dr. Dhruva Karki. My gratitude goes to Prof. Dr. Anirudra Thapa Head of Central Department of English for accepting my thesis proposal and academic comments to conduct this thesis.

Lastly, I am always indebted to my mother, Man Kumari Thapa for her motivation, unconditional love and support that encourages me to do more and better every day. I am also grateful to my colleagues for their direct or indirect contribution in completion of this thesis.

Mumaya Thapa April 2019