ACNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis is for partial fulfillment of Masters Degree in Business Studies (M.B.S.) undertaken at Tribhuvan University of Nepal. For this, I gained lots of guidelines and suggestions from my teachers, friends and company officials and my relatives. Firstly, I would like to express my profound gratitude to Dr. Khangendra Acharya, the Head of the Department of Research committee of P.G. Campus, Biratnagar for his guidance, encouragement and help in the smooth conduct of this study.

I would like to express thanks to honorable Mr. Harihar Bhandari, campus chief. Similarly thanks to Mr. Gopal Prasad Ghimire and other staffs of Post Graduate Campus, Biratnagar for their cordial Co-operation I extend my thanks to Managers and officials of STCL, who co-operated by providing necessary data and information.

I'm also acknowledged to my friends for their help and their inspiring suggestions to complete this work especially to my friend Sita Ghimire. I also express my gratitude to my all family members especially to my parents and my husband Bheshraj Sanjel.

I found myself fortunate enough to receive a good deal of help from various institutions and persons of various sectors in completing this study. I'm solely responsible for all errors.
