ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The purpose of preparing this thesis is to fulfill the requirements for the degree of Masters of Business studies (MBS). It is carried out within the conceptual framework of profit planning and control. The main objective of this study is to review the practice and effectiveness of cost-volume-profit analysis of Dairy Development Corporation (DDC). I am extremely grateful to all of them who has helped me guided me and supervised me to complete this work.

I wish to extend my deep sense of indebted to my thesis advisers, Shree Bhadra Neupane and Dilli Ram Bhandari of Shanker Dev Campus, who provided me valuable guidelines, insightful comments encouragement and generous treatment to complete this thesis.

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to all the members of DDC especially, Mr. Shree Ram Shresth, Accountant and Mr. Ram Bahadur Thapa, Chief Accountant from Finance Department; for providing me the data and other necessary information in writing this thesis.

Similarly, I would like to express my sincere and heartfelt appreciation to my parents (Mr. Hari Prasad Baskota and Mrs. Gayatri Baskota), brothers (Mr. Ganga Ram Baskota and Mr. Rameshor Baskota). They always inspired me to complete this journey of higher education and provided me the logistic and financial support to prepare this thesis. I thank them from the core of my heart, Since, Whatever, I am today it's because of them.

I take this opportunity to thank all the teachers, administrative staffs and Librarians of Shanker Dev Campus for their kindly support and co-operation. It would be very unkind of me, if I don't include the name of my colleagues. I am thankful for their support and encouragement.

At last but not the least, I would like to thank all who helped me directly or indirectly during the course of preparation of this thesis.

Atma Ram Baskota
