Acknowledgement

This study was undertaken in partial fulfillment of master's Degree in Sociology at Tribhuwan University, Department of Sociology/Anthropology, Birendranagar Multiple Campus. The field work was carried out between 24th Ashwin to 15th Marg 2064 in Birendranagar ward no. 6 and 8 as the purpose of study to find out the socio-economic status of child labors.

Thanks to the Department of Sociology/Anthropology and my respected teacher Mr. Krishna Bahadur Regmi, Department head of Sociology/Anthropology, for his enthusiastic support and encouragement and allowing me to conduct my thesis in partial fulfillment of Master's Degree in Sociology Profound gratitude is also due to my respected teacher Mr. Bhiusing Budha, Asst. Lecturer of Birendranagar Multiple Campus, who initially helped me to provide invaluable guidance and moral support during my research and writing of the final report. Without his generous effort, this study could not have been conducted. I would like to thank Mr. Anand Subedi, Asst. Lecturer, Birendranagar Multiple Campus for his important suggestion and encouragement for the study. Thanks must also go to all respected teachers of the department of sociology/Anthropology for their continued advice and encouragement.

There were many people who helped and encouraged me open-heartily to make this study a success. An expression of gratitude is due to all of them. Special thanks to my wife Shila and daughter Salina, for the Continue encouragement and creation of peace environment in the study period. Again, thanks to Mr. Bipin Acharya and Mr. Keshav Sharma, who tirelessly helped in data collection.

The biggest thanks of all must go to child labors, who opened up their lives and fact, to find out their Socio-economic Status and the cause driving them to this profession.

Mr. Bed Prakash Dhakal
