Acknowledgement

It is very difficult to name all the sources of inspiration that enlightened and made easy that dark, difficult and narrow path known as research. Moreover words are often too weak a made of revealing one's sentiments and feeling of indebtedness.

I am greatly indebted to my revered guide Prof. Dr. Kamal Das Manandhar for his cordial co-operation, without which this thesis would not have come into existence.

With a profound sense of gratitude, I am cordially thankful to staff of Standard Chartered Bank, Everest and Himalayan Bank Limited for their co-operation for providing necessary data.

I thank all my friends and family members and elders whose blessings have sustained me through the period of this work and in every aspect of my life.
