ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Concrete reality stands upon the scaffolding of abstract ideas. The concrete existence of my thesis also has its root in the relentless inspiration and support of different people and institutions. I want to express my profound gratitude to all of them. Without their co-operation and suggestions this endeavor would not have been accomplished in this shape. Here I would want to express my heartfelt thanks to the loving people of 'hetauda', who gave me their stories, love, thought, and time. Without their co-operation, trust and hospitality this work would not have taken this shape. They will always remain in my memory.

My first and foremost gratitude goes to my respected guru dr keshav kumar shrestha, professor of the department of sociology/anthropology, Tribhuvan university (TU) for providing me invaluable constructive suggestion, guidance and continuous inspiration. In spite of his busy schedule, he was carefully corrected every mistake of my thesis. I feel proud and lucky to be a student of such a great teacher.

Here I would like to express my heartfelt thanks and respect to Dr om gurung, head of central department of sociology/ anthropology.

I wholeheartedly extend my respect and sincere thanks to all my teachers of department of sociology/anthropology, Tribhuvan University, Kirtipur, Kathmandu for their academic support.

I am thankful to Tribhuvan university central library (TUCL), and also the library of Trichandra beside this I am highly indebted to, CNAS, freedom forum, and south Asia forum for human rights (SAFHR) for providing me access to necessary reading materials.

Last but not the least: I express my love and gratitude to my mum and other family members. It is due to my mum warm love, inspiration, support and trust that I have been able achieve higher education living far from her. Similarly, I am grateful to sir. Shyam shrestha for strengthen my faltering steps in course of thesis writing, as well as making 'grammatically' correction. Finally I am grateful to all those individuals, whose names I have been unable to mention due to my poor memory. All of them deserve special thanks. I alone am responsible for my all the claims and probable erroes (if any) in this writing.

Thanks
Srijana khadka
